

NYC Parent Academy
Proudly Presents:

BULLY

It's the fight of his life.

Written and performed by Lee Kaplan, "Bully" is an autobiographical solo show inspired by Kaplan's sixth grade journal entries where he describes the pain of bullying, the lasting effects and ultimately, the resolve he found within to over come them. Directed by Padraic Lillis

"Bully...can best be imagined as the school assembly to end all school assemblies...it's unassailable messages are sugarcoated with ounces of sweat, pounds of goofy humor and tons of heart"

One Night Only!
Wednesday January 28th, 2015

Register Now!
www.nycparentacademy.org
ph: 718-780-6534

Hurry! Seating is limited.

Location:
P.S. 230
1 Abermarle Road,
Brooklyn, NY 11218

6pm - 8pm
*Performance approx. 1 hour,
Discussion to follow

The New York Times

"Bully is devastating and should be required viewing"

The Washington Post

"Lee Kaplan's "Bully" captivated our students in a way that a lecture would not"

Ann Korahais, St. John's Country Day School
Jacksonville, Florida

"Your message was incredible and entertaining, thank-you for performing at our school, everyone loved it."

Caroline - Student, Bolles School
Jacksonville, Florida

PARENT ACADEMY

nycparentacademy.org

Learn.

Share.

Connect.