Name _____

Class: _____

Part I: Annotated Reading Log

Read at least four level-appropriate books. For each book, fill in the questions below and on the back of this sheet.

Part II: Novel Synthesis Project

Step A: Choose one book that had a central conflict, theme, or setting that was particularly meaningful to you.

Step B: Spend some time at the library or online researching the SOCIAL ISSUE, TIME-PERIOD (Depression Era, 300 B.C, etc), or PHYSICAL SETTING of the book, and copy or print out the one article that you find most interesting.

Step C: In at least one typed page (single-spaced), write an essay connecting the novel's theme to a related article.

For example:

- If you read a book about a girl with an eating disorder and printed an article about anorexia, you could write about what the disorder is, how it affected the character, and why it is such a big social issue for teens.
- If you read a book about a young man growing up in Jamaica and copied an article about the political history of the island, you could write about how your character dealt with his own identity and how that relates to the colonial past of the country.
